

ICAEW Parents' Evening

Hatfield

15 March 2017

University of Hertfordshire, Club de Havilland, De Havilland Campus
Hatfield, AL10 9EU

We know how important your child's future career is to you. You want to know the options available to them will lead to a bright and happy future.

Competitive salaries, continual progression, job security – these are what your child would enjoy if they choose to become an ICAEW Chartered Accountant. We invite you and your children to a local event where you can find out more about careers in chartered accountancy. You will hear from ICAEW about the profession and various routes to qualify as a chartered accountant. You'll also hear from employers about the graduate and school leaver opportunities they have available in both local and national offices.

The agenda for the evening is as follows:

- 17:30 Welcome drinks and registration
- 17:45 Routes into chartered accountancy presentation – ICAEW
- 18:00 Employer networking
- 19:00 Close and informal drinks and canapés

To register your interest please complete the registration form here or please contact Anderson.Dasilva@icaew.com
